SYDNEY FILM FESTIVAL RETURNS TO HAYDEN ORPHEUM PICTURE PALACE CREMORNE

The 63rd Sydney Film Festival today announces 26 feature films and documentaries will be screened at the Hayden Orpheum Picture Palace Cremorne during the Festival, 8-19 June.

Bringing the Festival experience to Sydney’s North Shore for the fourth year, a selection of films will be screened, across all 12 days of the Festival, in the beautifully restored Art Deco Hayden Orpheum Picture Palace Cremorne. Local restaurant The Cotton Thief will offer a special menu for Festival audiences for the first time. It is one of 16 Dining Delights experiences offered exclusively during the Festival.

“The Festival is delighted audiences will again experience the great pleasure of watching important works of cinema, in one of greater Sydney’s cultural treasures, the Hayden Orpheum Picture Palace Cremorne,” said Festival Director Nashen Moodley. “A number of Official Competition films, together with award-winning documentaries and features will ensure the appetite for festival-quality films is satiated in Sydney’s North Shore,” he said.

“After 80 years, the beautiful Hayden Orpheum continues the tradition of making movie-going a special event,” said Paul Dravet, General Manager of the Hayden Orpheum Picture Palace Cremorne. “We have proudly maintained standards that perfectly complement special occasions such as Sydney Film Festival, which we welcome back with great enthusiasm. Please join us in celebrating movies at a genuine picture palace!”

ABOUT SYDNEY FILM FESTIVAL

From Wednesday 8 June to Sunday 19 June 2016, the 63rd Sydney Film Festival offers Sydneysiders another exciting season of cinema amidst a whirlwind of premieres, red-carpet openings, in-depth discussions, international guests and more. Each year the Festival’s programming team curates 12 days of cinema sourced from world-famous film festivals, including Cannes, Sundance, Toronto and the Berlinale; as well as Australia’s finest productions.

Sydney Film Festival also presents an Official Competition of 12 films that vie for the Sydney Film Prize, a highly respected honour that awards a $60,000 cash prize based on the decision of a jury of international and Australian filmmakers and industry professionals. Previous Sydney Film Prize winners are: Arabian Nights (2015); Two Days, One Night (2014); Only God Forgives (2013); Alps (2012); A Separation (2011); Heartbeats (2010); Bronson (2009); and Hunger (2008).

The Festival takes place across greater Sydney: at the State Theatre, Event Cinemas George Street, Dendy Opera Quays, Dendy Newtown, Skyline Drive-In Blacktown, Art Gallery of NSW, Hayden Orpheum Picture Palace Cremorne, Casula Powerhouse, the Festival Hub at Sydney Town Hall and SFF Outdoor Screen.

The Festival is a major event on the New South Wales cultural calendar and is one of the world’s longest-running film festivals. For more information visit: www.sff.org.au.

The 63rd Sydney Film Festival is supported by the NSW Government through Screen NSW and Destination NSW, the Federal Government through Screen Australia and the City of Sydney. The Festival’s Strategic Partner is the NSW Government through Destination NSW.
