The Sydney Film Festival (SFF) is one of the longest running events of its kind in the world.

The annual June Festival brings the best new films from Australia and around the world to audiences in Sydney. As well as 250+ features, shorts, retros, and documentaries from over 50 countries across 350+ sessions at around eight Sydney-wide venues across 12 days. The Festival is celebrating its 70th Festival in 2023 between 7 – 18 June.

The Festival hosts several awards to recognise excellence in filmmaking, including the Official Competition, Documentary Australia Foundation Award for Australian Documentary, and Dendy Awards for Australian Short Films (which are Academy Award eligible) incorporating fiction, animation, and screenplay categories.

SFF also presents the Travelling Film Festival, taking mini festivals to 19 venues across regional NSW, the Northern Territory and regional Queensland. SFF receives funding from federal, state, and local government, corporate sponsorship, and philanthropic donations.

OVERVIEW OF THE POSITION

The Materials Coordinator helps the Materials Manager by tracking and coordinating publicity and marketing materials for films screening in Sydney Film Festival. It includes the editing and storage of these materials.

 - Request publicity materials for each title screening in the festival, to include:
 - high resolution images (film stills and director headshot);
 - digital press kit, production credits;
 - director and key crew biographies;
 - trailer of the film and/or excerpts;
 - press clippings;
 - previewing links/screeners, and;
 - award details.
 - Maintain accurate and detailed spreadsheet of all publicity materials received, including copyright and access details.
 - Follow-up requests for publicity materials to meet strict marketing and publicity deadlines.
 - Liaise with SFF Publicity, Marketing and Programming teams to fulfill requirements, deadlines and availability of materials.
- Manage content for marketing materials
 - Select images for use in SFF marketing materials, in consultation with Marketing and Programming teams that best represent each individual film or event.
 - Adjust, manipulate and re-size film stills and publicity shots.
 - Upload images and other press materials to SFF website.
- Assist production for all SFF original video production, including
 - Production management of shoots, including dealing with studios, suppliers, cast and crew
 - Post-production including editing, sound mix, grading and export for publishing across web and other digital channels

In addition, the Materials Coordinator may perform other duties as assigned and required by Materials Manager.
