

2023 Volunteer Position Description

Volunteering at the Sydney Film Festival (SFF) is a great opportunity to gain practical experience, meet new people, soak up the festival atmosphere and see exciting films in the program.

Benefits of volunteering include:

- Learning practical front of house skills
- Meet like-minded people including SFF staff, audiences and fellow volunteers
- Get industry experience and a behind-the-scenes insight
- Contribute to Sydney's culture and support the not-for-profit Festival
- Receive an Admit 1 Pass to book a Festival film ticket per volunteer shift

Volunteers are rostered to one of the 9 main venues:

- State Theatre
- Event Cinemas on George Street
- Place Cinemas, Central
- Dendy Newtown
- Hayden Orpheum Picture Palace in Cremorne
- The Ritz Cinema in Randwick
- The HUB – Town Hall
- Art Gallery of NSW
- Sydney Museum

Roles include:

- Queue and crowd management
- Ticket scanning
- Distributing programs
- Greeting patrons
- Providing festival information
- Runner

Volunteers will commit to a minimum of five shifts, generally 4-5 hours each shift, across the 12-day Festival. The volunteer team is selected based on weekend and evening availability, as well as experience and enthusiasm.

Please note you must have access to a mobile phone to be a Volunteer. This will allow you to sign in/out of shifts and receive the roster and communication via the Volunteer software system.

Please read the Volunteer Agreement before you apply – you must agree to these terms in order to apply and take part in the program.

Volunteer applications close Wednesday 05 May 2023.
