

Volunteer Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

For twelve days the Sydney Film Festival (SFF) showcases the best in Australian and International cinema to audiences from Sydney and beyond. We rely on dedicated volunteers to generously devote their time and commitment to SFF. Every year, volunteers (many who return year after year) help bring SFF to life.

By being involved with the festival you will also have the chance to meet lots of new people, make new friends and learn new skills in a creative, fun environment.

Volunteers are the heart of the SFF and bring their energy and enthusiasm while helping hundreds of thousands of avid filmgoers. Between shifts, be sure to catch incredible films and take in the Festival atmosphere.

If you are interested in working in the film industry, it is also a fantastic way to be a part of a world-renowned festival, and a great way to get a foot in the door.

SFF is a not-for-profit organisation that is only possible with the support of passionate volunteers.
